Hi Lizzy, Nick and Silvia,

Just writing to connect everybody to streamline this process.

Silvia - if you're still interested, we'd be happy to have you stay with us. To make it work, we'll need to do a couple things in the next couple days that require some coordination on everybody's part:

First, we need to get Lizzy's keys to Silvia.

The easiest thing to do would be to have Lindsay and Silvia meet. Let's try to make this work.

Lizzy - when will Lindsay return to DC? (Silvia - Lindsay has Lizzy's apartment keys)

Silvia - what is your availability this weekend? And if you don't have a US cell phone, what is the best way to reach you this weekend if you're away from a computer?

Second, Nick and I would like to help Silvia get settled in the apartment.

Silvia - it would be best if you could move in this weekend before the week starts. But weeknights next week could also work - it's just that Nick might not be around.

Nick and I have availability this weekend on Saturday morning and early afternoon, Sunday morning and Sunday night.

Please reply-all so that everybody stays in the loop.

Thanks!

James
